Whether you are a sales representative or a plumber, this book is about being the best. Everyone must sell something every day of their life. This isn't just a book for beginners or those contemplating sales. This book is for experienced, tenured reps as well. Several top representatives, who have read this book, indicated it was a great review, reminding them of things they had forgotten or they just quit doing. For those of you contemplating sales as a profession, or just starting in sales, this will give you a foundation on which to build your career and your life.
